C. Role of Stakeholders

Scorecard Item		Guiding Reference	Answer (Yes/No)	GLO Remarks
C.1	The rights of stakeholders that are established by law or through mutual agreements are to be respected.
Does the company disclose a policy that address:
C.1.1	The existence and scope of the company's efforts to address customer's welfare?	OECD Principle IV (A): The rights of stakeholders that are established by law or through mutual agreements are to be respected. In all OECD countries, the rights of stakeholders are established by law (e.g. labour, business, commercial and insolvency laws) or by contractual relations. Even in areas where stakeholder interests are not legislated, many firms make additional commitments to stakeholders, and concern over corporate reputation and corporate performance often requires the recognition of broader interests.	YES	As a policy linked with our business, one of our core values and strategies is to put customers first and obsess about our customers. To be the leader of the Filipino digital lifestyle, we provide world-class technologies for entertainment, education, engagement and rewards designed to address our customer's needs. Our enhanced Circle of Happiness Philosophy drives our work ethic such that we sustain empowerment and a sense of meaning in work among our employees, so that happy and engaged employees deliver wonderful customer experiences whereby our customers feel special and valued, which will result in our confidence and rewards among our shareholders. Our overall purpose and corporate culture are geared toward the fulfillment of quality service for our customers. As stated in our Manual of Corporate Governance (MCG), we identify our customers as one of our stakeholders. Our Board is tasked to promote equitable treatment of all our stakeholders, including shareholders and customers. The rights of our stakeholders are in our MCG and are likewise covered by specific company policies such as, among others, whistleblowing policy, policy on RPTs, conflict of interest

			policy, privacy policy and policy in relation to health, safety and welfare of customers and employees. Further, we put a premium on ensuring the health and safety in Globe work places and even outside of it. We do this through our strict adherence to the government's Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) standards and the OHSAS 18001 Occupational Health and Safety Management Systems Standards, as well as a host of other related programs. We currently have two OHSAS-certified facilities—our Valero office and GTI. However, the same safety practices and standards apply to our other sites as well. This ensures that we minimize everyone's exposure to risk and accidents, including contractors, vendors, visitors to our sites, customers and our employees. Our Occupational Safety and Health policy guide us in protecting the health and safety of our employees, customers and the surrounding communities where we operate. Providing the best customer experience is a key strategic priority at Globe, and the defining factor that makes the organization unique. Among other initiatives, Globe adopts User-Centered Design practices so customers have an active voice in every aspect of the business. Through the User Council Program, customers give feedback and input when testing Globe products. This policy and its corresponding activities and programs are also disclosed in our annual integrated report (iR) and annual integrated corporate governance report (i-ACGR). All of which are in the company website. Our company website also dedicates a section for information and policies that

C.1.2	Supplier/contractor selection procedures?		YES The team maximizes value through commodity management, selection of best-in-class suppliers, and pursuit of process excellence in procurement and supply chain management. Vendors/suppliers undergo a comprehensive accreditation process which includes assessment of their technical and financial capability, business continuity, safety, health, and environmental policies. Grounded on the practice of fair, ethical, and

			governance policies, opportunity is equitably provided to the appropriate suppliers through competitive bidding and auctions. Proposals are evaluated on the basis of best-value including a consideration of environment-friendly policies and practices. Given equivalent proposals, preference for purchase award is given to local suppliers and proposals aligned with green practices. Relationships with suppliers are also highly valued, with each considered a business partner. Globe continues to recognize and foster strong business relations with its partners through its established programs like the Business Partner Awards. Vendors/suppliers also provide learning opportunity through plant visits and technology briefings. Conversely, Vendor Clinics are initiated for selected vendors/suppliers/contractors to help improve their performance and competitiveness. The Globe Telecom Supplier Code of Conduct and Ethics (CoC) establishes standards of quality and business integrity to ensure that working conditions are safe, workers are treated with respect and dignity and that business operations are environmentally responsible and conducted ethically. The Supplier Code of Ethics shall be applicable to all vendors/suppliers of the Globe Group of companies. Globe expects its vendors to acknowledge and actively support the Code and to continually seek to conform to the standards contained therein. Globe expects that the principles apply to vendors, their parent entities and subsidiaries or affiliate entities, and with other entities with

C.1.5	The company’s anti-corruption programmes and procedures?		YES As stated in our Anti-Corruption Policy, Globe employees shall maintain the highest standards of honesty and professional conduct. Seeking undue financial and material advantage from transactions with Globe is a breach of trust between the employee and the Company. The employee, by virtue of his employment, is bound not to betray Globe’s trust by seeking to gain any undue personal or pecuniary advantage (other than the rightful proceeds of employment) from his dealings with or for and in behalf of the Company. As part of Globe’s campaign for anti-corruption, employees are reminded through internal communications channels to fill out gift disclosures especially during national festivities. The form shall be submitted to employees’ respective group heads who will decide whether the gift shall be returned or kept by the employee or be surrendered to Human Resources Group for possible use during events of the Corporation. Our MCG and company website contains our anti-corruption policy. Our Code of Conduct promulgates, among others, policies concerning Unethical, Corrupt, and Other Prohibited Practices. These policies serve as guide to matters involving work performance, dealings with employees, customers and suppliers, handling of assets, records and information, avoidance of conflict of interest situations and corrupt

C.1.6	How creditors' rights are safeguarded?		YES	It is the policy of Globe to protect the rights of its creditors by maintaining, at all times, the company's good credit standing. In furtherance thereof, the Company strictly observes contractual obligations, and regard fair and truthful disclosure and transparency of financial records and dealings of utmost importance to assure creditors of the company's continued credit worthiness. Globe's periodic reports to its creditors such as the latest certified Financial Statements, Certificate of No Default, and CFO Certification on compliance with financial ratios ensure the Creditors of the company's financial soundness. The Company also provides prompt and accurate reports of its financial standing to its creditors. We provide prompt and accurate reports of our financial standing to creditors by providing them our financial and operating results, Management and Discussion Analysis and Financial Statements on a periodic basis that allow the creditors to continuously evaluate and monitor our performance and credit standing. Moreover, we adopted an expanded CG approach in managing business risks. A Revised Enterprise Risk Management Policy was developed to provide a better understanding of the different risks that could threaten the achievement of our vision, mission, strategies, and goals. The policy also highlights the vital role that each individual plays in Globe from Management to staff in managing risks and in ensuring that the company's business objectives are attained. With this, it assures the creditors that we are proactive in managing our risks and are committed to sustaining the growth of the company. As part of the

C.4.2	Does the company have a policy or procedures to protect an employee/person who reveals alleged illegal/unethical behaviour from retaliation?		YES	Globe’s policy and procedures on the protection of an employee/person who reveals illegal/unethical behaviour are included in the whistleblowing policy. Submitted reports will be investigated according to the protocols established in the policy, and protected by Globe together with the identity of the reporter. According to the CoC, Globe’s whistleblower protection policy is composed of eight parts that outline the process and criteria whereby the whistleblower is given protection for the disclosure made. The policy, among others, provides that: “x xxx 3) A Whistleblower making a Protected Disclosure shall be entitled to the protection of this policy provided that he himself is not complicit to the improper activity reported. In particular, he shall not be subject to dismissal, demotion, any form of harassment or discrimination, or current or future bias in performance evaluation, by virtue of his having made a Protected Disclosure.

			4) If the Whistleblower is not an employee, but a vendor, supplier or business partner, the Whistleblower shall not be denied future business of the company solely on the basis of his having made a Protected Disclosure, unless it also appears from the facts of the case that the Whistleblower participated in the prohibited conduct with sufficient knowledge that the same was illegal, prohibited, unethical, or would be to the detriment and prejudice of Globe. 5) The Disclosure Committee may...grant immunity to a Whistleblower who has participated in the improper activity reported... x xxx 7) The Disclosure Committee shall designate a representative of HRG as a Whistleblower Protection Officer to ensure that Whistleblowers are accorded the proper protection under this Policy. 8) The members of the Disclosure Committee shall likewise be protected in the reasonable exercise of their functions under this Policy, and shall be indemnified by the company in the event of suit or claims for all actions taken by them in accordance with this policy.” The policy and procedures to protect an employee/person who reveals illegal/unethical behaviour from retaliation are disclosed in our ACGR, IR, the Code of Conduct and Ethics, and our MCG, which are publicly-available through the company website: GLO CoC pp. 35-39, 85-93
