B.1	Shares and Voting Rights
B.1.1	Does the company's ordinary or common shares have one vote for one share?	OECD Principle II E. All shareholders of the same series of a class should be treated equally. Capital structures and arrangements that enable certain shareholders to obtain a degree of influence or control disproportionate to their equity ownership should be disclosed. 1. Within any series of a class, all shares should carry the same rights. All investors should be able to obtain information about the rights attached to all series and classes of shares before they purchase. Any changes in economic or voting rights should be subject to approval by those classes of shares which are negatively affected. ICGN 9.1 Share classes Sufficient information about the material attributes of all of the company's classes and series of shares should be disclosed on a timely basis. Ordinary or	YES	Globe's common shares have one vote for one share. B.5.2	In case of related party transactions requiring shareholders' approval, is the decision made by disinterested shareholders?	OECD Principle II G. Minority shareholders should be protected from abusive actions by, or in the interest of, controlling shareholders acting either directly or indirectly, and should have effective means of redress. Abusive self-dealing should be prohibited. ICGN Principle 9.5 Shareholder approval Shareholders should have the right to approve significant related party transactions and this should be	YES	Rights of minority shareholders are protected at all times, especially from abusive actions by, or in the interest of controlling shareholders. Globe ensures that our policies and processes cater to the best interest of all our shareholders, including minority shareholders, and other stakeholders. As such, all transactions including material RPTs that require shareholders' approval, as determined by the Audit and RPT Committee, are submitted to all shareholders, including minority shareholders, for approval. Our policy on RPTs further states that Globe "shall encourage disinterested shareholders to decide on the matter". Policy on Related Party Transactions, p.5 (Section VIII)
